

IMPACT PHARMACIST - Lisa McCarthy BScPhm, PharmD

- Graduated from the University of Toronto with BScPhm in 2002, PharmD in 2005
- Completed specialty residency in ambulatory care at Sunnybrook and Women's College Health Science Centre in Toronto
- Past involvement with projects concerning seamless care, patient education, OxyContin® dependence, role for pharmacists at community health centres
- Clinical interests: women's health, geriatrics, anticoagulation
- Research interests: education of health care professionals, patient education, role of pharmacist in primary care settings
- Worked as community pharmacist providing coverage to Toronto-area pharmacies

